One day Ewa invites Wilbär to see the dens she has dug in the snow. She enters and Wilbär has to wait

Just a minute - I am cleaning it

Waiting and waiting

Still there? - Just a minute

Wonder how big the apartment is?

Wait and wait I want to see it now!

Just a minute

Minute and minute - it take hours!

Now we will see if I can get you in through the door. You know it is quite small so it dont get cold inside there.

If I pull here we might succeed

Dont worry we will make it

I wonder if I should make this window bigger to get more light in

Can you see me ?

Now I have cleaned and you are welcome.
Try the door again.

She had two different dens with room for two grown up bears. One with a window that we made bigger. It was great to see.
